

Book Report

6B Yung Lam, Maris

Today, I'm going to introduce a very interesting book to you. It's called The Little Red Hen.

The story takes place in a farm once upon a time. It is about Little Red Hen, Cat, Dog and Mouse.

This book is about Little Red Hen who is the most hard-working animal in the farm. One day, she finds some wheat grain. She wishes to plant it and use it to make bread. She asks Cat, Dog and Mouse to help her plant and cut the wheat and bake the bread. However, they all reject. Finally, Little Red Hen bakes the bread herself. The animals want the bread too but Little Red Hen does not share it with them because they do not help her.

I like the interesting plot. I feel excited when I read it. My favourite character is Little Red Hen because she is hard-working. She does everything by herself. She plants and cuts the wheat. She also bakes the bread. I want to learn from her. I have learnt I need to be kind to others and do my job so that I can enjoy what I want.

If I were Little Red Hen, I would share my bread with Cat, Dog and Mouse. If I were Cat, I would not take Little Red Hen's effort for granted. I would give her a hand when she needed me.

This is the end of my book sharing. Thank you.
