

At the Cake Shop

4B 9 Lee Ka Cheung, Mark

Matthew went to a cake shop in the afternoon before his mother's birthday. He went there because he wanted to give his mother a birthday surprise. The cake shop was in Fanling shopping centre. He went there on foot.

Matthew saw two cakes in the shop. The strawberry cake was 80 dollars, the chocolate cake was 100 dollars. The strawberry cake was cheaper than the chocolate cake. He wanted to buy the chocolate cake because he thought it was more delicious. However, he couldn't pay for it because he forgot to bring his purse. 'Can you keep this cake for me? I will buy it later.' Matthew asked. 'Yes, you can come back before 8 o'clock tonight,' the shopkeeper replied.

In the end, Matthew bought the chocolate cake. Mum was very happy. They had a funny birthday party.

